

Register now for Five Skies Empowerment

Join the hundreds of individuals who have completed the Five Skies Empowerment Training Program and are now better prepared for success in their construction jobs.

Five Skies Training and Consulting LLC is a 100% Native-owned small business that specializes in providing trainings in or near Indian Country. Individuals who are Tribal members, descendants, and/or parents of a Tribal member will receive preference for the program and for work on Enbridge's Line 5 Wisconsin Segment Relocation project, although there is no guarantee of employment upon completion of this training.

Enbridge is sponsoring this program at no cost to participants.

Some of the programs offered in the four-week training include:

- Empowerment
- Teachings of the Medicine Wheel
- Mending Broken Hearts
- Critical core skills
- Construction industry overview
- Resume development and interviewing
- Introduction to financial literacy
